Thoughts from the Superintendent

New Beginnings

Before I begin my first column as the new superintendent of the North Syracuse Central School District, let me offer my sincere congratulations to the Cicero-North Syracuse High School Class of 2019!

Some of the graduates crossing the stage at this year's ceremony were my students when I was the principal at Roxboro Road Elementary School. As I was watching these young people take this step in their educational journeys, I could not help thinking about where they've been, what they've accomplished and what is yet to come...for all of us.

The North Syracuse Central School District has been my home for the past 20 plus years and I'm honored and humbled to have this opportunity to lead this incredible school district. My own daughters are proud graduates of C-NS and have reaped the benefits of a North Syracuse Central School District education.

As I take on my new role here, one of my goals is to bring attention to the great things happening in our district. We have outstanding students and staff and we are doing some amazing things by working together.

With the approval of the new school budget, we have been able to add additional school counselors to further address the social/emotional needs of our students, a key area of focus. Additional focus areas include the continuation of our work around literacy and expanding STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) opportunities for our students. These increased opportunities will move us to the top of the OCM BOCES Consortium and will allow us to prepare our students for innovative careers and promising college experiences.

I will be spending the summer months listening and learning so that I can do my best to effectively serve our district and community. I plan to be highly visible so I invite you to introduce yourself to me when you see me out and around. I'd love to hear about your child's successes or a teacher that went above and beyond or a staff member who made a difference. I want to hear about those things so I can share them with the community and we can celebrate our successes together and truly recognize the North Syracuse Central School District.

As I said before, I will be taking time to listen to our families and learn even more about this great community I call home, and will follow-up on suggestions that will have a positive impact on the district. Please share your thoughts about ways of communicating so that I can plan to reach out in the most convenient way.

Enjoy your summer and I'll see you soon!

Daniel D. Bowles

Change to NYS Immunization Law Removes Religious Exemption

On June 13, 2019, the law allowing parents to request and obtain exemptions from immunization requirements based upon statements of religious belief was repealed. The new law, which is effective immediately, no longer allows children to attend school in the North Syracuse Central School District without required immunizations.

The district will not allow unvaccinated students to participate in any summer programs or to continue enrollment in September if they are not immunized as required by law.

For the 2019-2020 school year only, the law allows previously unvaccinated students to attend school as long as families can demonstrate that those children have received at least the first dose in each required immunization series and that they have age appropriate appointments scheduled to complete the required vaccinations.

As of July 1, 2019, the district requires documentation of immunization for previously unvaccinated students prior to their participation in any programs.

More information, including information about what immunizations are required, is available on the district's website at www.nscsd.org.

Welcome New Superintendent

Bowles has dedicated more than twenty years of his educational career to North Syracuse students, starting in the district as a school counselor at Cicero-North Syracuse High School in 1997 and staying through 1999. He began working as a school district administrator in 1999, first serving as an associate principal at Gillette Road Middle School, then principal at Roxboro Road Elementary School in 2001 and moving into the central office role of Director of Elementary Education in 2008. From 2012 to June 2019, he served as the district's Associate Superintendent.

Prior to his work in North Syracuse, he served as a school counselor in the Utica City School District. His educational experience includes certification of advanced study in educational administration from SUNY Cortland in 1999, a master's degree in educational counseling from St. Lawrence University and a bachelor's degree in sociology from St. Lawrence University. Mr. Bowles also holds permanent New York State Certification as a school district administrator and as a school counselor.

"I'm excited to take on this new role and am looking forward to working together with all stakeholders in the best interest of our students," Bowles said. "My goal this summer is to be highly visible throughout the community and to meet as many people as possible so that we can begin to collaborate. Please take a moment to introduce yourself to me when you can!"

SUMMER MEAL PROGRAM

Children in our community do not need to go hungry this summer. For many kids, summertime means food, friends and fun. For families who count on school breakfast and lunch, however, the summer months can be stressful and family food budgets have to be stretched even further. The US Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Summer Food Service Program helps fill the hunger gap.

FREE summer meals, funded by the USDA, are available to kids and teens ages 18 and younger at Roxboro Middle School (300 Bernard Street) in Mattydale, NY. This is an open site therefore free meals are available to all children ages 18 and under regardless of income. Registration is NOT required.

The district's summer meal program takes place at:

Roxboro Road Middle School, Monday through Friday through August 16. Breakfast will be served each day from 8:10 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. and lunch from 11:00 a.m. to 12:40 p.m.

If you or someone you know is interested, go to www.nscsd.org/summerfood or call 315-218-2175 with any questions you may have.

PARENT NOTIFICATION REGARDING STUDENT WORK AND PHOTOS

During the school year, your son or daughter may have the opportunity to have his/her photo taken, video image and voice recorded, and/or art and written work published in connection with a school district activity or program. Your child's photo (image), school work and/or name may be published in local newspapers, posted (displayed) on the district's internet site, or used by the requesting organization (local TV or print media) for programming, i.e., backup and their news stories. If you DO NOT want your child's picture, name or schoolwork to be used in newspaper articles, video, and/or district publications, including our district's website, please inform your school principal in writing.

North Syracuse Central School District 2019 Teacher of the Year is Sara Bambino from Cicero-North Syracuse High School

On June 17, the North Syracuse Central School District proudly presented their 2019 Teacher of the Year award to Sara Bambino. She will go on to the statewide program for Teacher of the Year, sponsored by the New York State Education Department.

Sara began working in the North Syracuse Central School District in 2004, first as a summer school teacher, and then continuing as an English teacher at North Syracuse Junior High School. In 2012, she began teaching various courses at Cicero-North Syracuse High School. Her teaching has included AIS English, Speech, Creative Writing, English Honors, American Literature, Emotional Intelligence and more.

Sara lives by the Positivity Project's motto, "other people matter," a mind-set that she feels has shaped her teaching. "Imagine if each of us approached our moments with the mind-set of maximizing positivity and building up the other people around us. It would allow for clear, candid conversations, an increase in empathy and productivity—and most of all create strong, healthy relationships within multiple facets of our lives," Sara said.

"This is what I spend each day striving towards with our students—those I see in my class and those that I interact with in different ways throughout our building and community."

Sara has an excellent reputation and great experience as a classroom instructor and as a leader of students, staff, and community. Sara's many achievements include partnerships with the Syracuse Stage Young Playwrights Festival, the Positivity Project, as well as an ongoing leadership role in Special Olympics at C-NS High School.

Sara also coordinates the district Corporate Challenge team and C-NS Making Strides for Breast Cancer team. Of her many inspiring stories, two stand out. Sharing her own experiences as a NSCSD student and graduate and how she transformed her morning duty into a supportive "Breakfast Club" for C-NS students. Certainly Sara represents the best qualities of teaching and caring.

When C-NS began the Positivity Project this past year, Sara signed up to become one of the project's team leaders. She strives to share the project's 24 character strengths with her students and peers.

Lisa VanBeveren, one of Sara's fellow English teachers at C-NS, said the following about Sara, "If there is something positive going on at C-NS, there is a solid chance that [Sara] is behind it. [She] makes her classroom a place where inclusivity is further fostered by bringing general education and special education students together for team building and lessons in emotional intelligence."

Lisa's sentiments are echoed by C-NS House II Principal Ann Lorenzini who said, "Sara is kind to every student that she encounters. She builds a rapport with each student that allows her to push them to be better learners and better people."

Other finalists in the North Syracuse Central School District 2019 Teacher of the Year competition were: Kristine Norton, Special Education Teacher at Smith Road Elementary School; Arlene Osborne, 4th Grade Teacher at Lakeshore Road Elementary School; Danielle Rausa, Music Teacher at Roxboro Road Elementary School; Karen Seamans, Music Teacher at Gillette Road Middle School and Shannon Vogt, Earth Science Teacher at North Syracuse Junior High School. Congratulations to Sara and all our dedicated finalists!

This year, students in Mrs. Bambino and Mrs. Santoferrara's English classes at C-NS participated in the Young Playwright's Festival through Syracuse Stage, in conjunction with Syracuse University. Through the festival, students wrote original 10-minute plays that were then judged by Syracuse University staff. Semi-finalists attended a writing workshop at Syracuse Stage and winners had their plays performed by Syracuse University drama students. Two C-NS students were selected for the quarter finals: Tyler Catus for "Play Writers" and Maria McDowell for "Torn." C-NS student Kaileah Decker was a semi-finalist for her play, "The Oreo Theory" and Greg Buckley was a winner for his piece, "That One Friend." Congratulations to all our playwrights!
